I am very impressed with the efforts made by the tamariki and whānau with correct uniform. E mihi ana ki a koutou. E wera haere ana ngā rā, you can order school caps or bucket hats thru the office please. This is considered part of our school uniform and pōtae are compulsory on HOT Days!!

Fundraising Committee

Big thank you by Whaea Lorraine to everyone who turned up to the hui.

Whaea Lorraine was voted as the Chairperson of our Fundraising Committee as she is very motivated to get this up and running and release this responsibility off myself and the kaiako. Whaea Kriss Hancy was voted as the Treasurer and Whaea Monique the Secretary.

They will be opening a separate bank account as sometimes our school accounts can get quite messy with allsorts of payments going in. Future fundraising events will be organised by the Committee.

KUTU CLINIC

We would like whānau who check their tamariki hair at home to please send in a letter saying that hair is clean and tamariki can swim.

Wānanga Reo

We will be hosting our first Wānanga Reo on Saturday 7th December. We will be looking at some fun reo activities whānau can do with their tamariki at home to improve and increase te reo being spoken in our kāinga

Te Mauri o Tupaia

November 8th we will see Ngahirakamaitawhiti, a waka hourua down our Waikare Inlet. At 5:00am the sound of the Pipi Parera will be heard to alert the waka hourua that our kaihoe have left Te Turuki. We envision our waka and kaihoe paddling to the waka hourua to collect passengers, the mauri and 2 whakaahua of Papa Hekenukumai and Whaea Hilda on our waka and bringing them to the bridge by the marae. We are still to confirm how many waka we will use to do this. I will be asking our current and old kaihoe to participate in this auspicious occasion for Te Kapotai. This pōhiri should be finished early enough to continue with normal van routines. During the day all tuakana will participate by supporting the taumata and kīhini. The teina will come for part of the day and return back to kura.

Ngā Kaiako Hou 2020.

Next year we will be welcoming the return of Monique Jason and Tania Nohotima as kaiako in our kura. The staffing situation currently looks like:

Tau 1 – Karen Ryder

Tau 2/3 – Te Marino Martin Kawiti (Pāngarau - teina)

Tau 4/5 – Arthur Tauhinu (Te Reo Matatini - teina)

Tau 6 – Tania Nohotima (Te Reo Matatini – tuakana)

Tau 7/8 – Monique Jason (Pāngarau – tuakana)

Kaiāwhina – Lorraine Johnson

Kaihāpai – Tracey Hancy

Kaiwhakatika – Frances Pulemoana

We are still deciding who will be the new kaiāwhina for our kōtiro turi. Apologies to all who have applied and this will be completed as soon as possible.
